New Mexico Letter From A Union College Boy.

I have been noticing in The Mountain Advocate what is said and done with relation to people suffering with Tuberculosis there. I wish to say that all I have read so far is true. Get out in the open as much as possible, if you cannot change to a different climate. For those who can make a change, there is, I believe, no better place in the world than New Mexico. The most important thing is, come before it is too late! seven months ago in Florida I was advised to come west for this purpose. At that time I was a coughing a great deal. After being here a few months my coughing ceased, and I cannot now tell that there was ever anything the matter with me. Our community Dr. also came to Espanola for the same reason, and he was in much worse condition than I, he is now one of the strongest men here with no sign of ailment. He rides on horseback or in an open buggy hundreds of miles in all kinds of weather and always seems ready for the next call.

To those who can afford to come to New Mexico, I would say, come at once, buy a small farm in this upper Rio Grande valley and live. This is a beautiful scope of country surrounded by mountains, well irrigated from the waters of the Rio Grande, and is a splendid place to raise farm products. Three or four crops of alfalfa are cut in a year. It is also a splendid fruit country. Cherries, berries, apricots, peaches and pears are shipped out in large quantities.

I am now pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Espanola New Mexico, thirty five miles north west of Santa Fe. We are expecting to build a new church and parsonage in the near future. With best wishes to all Barbourville friends, I am

Fraternalty yours,
Joseph A. Bretz.

NOTICE

Will Receive Bids on the Building of Pike

Bids for contract to build 2.36 miles of pike road from Barbourville limits toward Whitley County line in the direction of Williams and on the South side of Cumberland river, will be received at the Court House sealed up to be opened at 1 o'clock p. m. Aug. 16, 1915. Bidders may examine plans, profiles and specifications at the Knox County Court Clerk's office and bids will be received by the Knox Fiscal Court as stated above. Each bidder must accompany his bid with a bond or certified check, payable to the Sheriff of Knox County in a sum to be fixed by the County Judge and approved by the State Commissioner of Public Roads, as a guarantee that if said work is awarded to him he will enter into contract with the said Fiscal Court for the same.

Letter From C. H. Bays

Warren, Ky., Aug. 9, 1915.
To the Editor of
The Mountain Advocate,
Barbourville Ky.

Dear Sir:
I desire to thank the citizens and voters of the 69th Legislative District, through the columns of your paper, for the interest and support which they gave me in securing the nomination on the Republican ticket for the Legislature. I feel very grateful to the people for the support they have given me, and I shall endeavor to serve them faithfully, if elected, as I feel confident I will be, at the November election. I want to ask all my friends to help roll up a big majority for the Republican ticket at the November Election.

I have no ill will for either of my opponents or those who supported them in this campaign and I know that they feel a deep interest in the success of the entire Republican Ticket at the November Election.

Yours very truly,
C. H. Bays.

MRS. BEAM TELLS OF HER ONE FEAR

Appetite So Ravenous She is Afraid Board Bill Will Be Raised.

Louisville, Ky., August 12—Mrs. Leon S. Beam, wife of a well-known traveling salesman, who resides with her mother in Bardstown, came to Louisville recently for the sole purpose of expressing her gratitude for the remarkable accomplishments of the new medicine, Tanlac. She said:

"I have been frightfully nervous and so run-down. I was short of breath, and slight noises which did not formerly disturb me, upset my nerves dreadfully. If I had any energy I really didn't realize it. I took little interest in anything, and when those distressing headaches came upon me I was almost frantic. My digestion was bad and I had no appetite.

"Three or four doses of Tanlac made me feel decidedly better. I have used a whole bottle of Tanlac, and am improved in every way. My digestion is better, my nerves are in an excellent condition, and I have more color and feel stronger than I have in two or three years. Really, I have the most ravenous appetite, and my only fear is that my mother will be enforced to increase my board bill."

Tanlac the premier preparation, that brought such quick relief to Mrs. Beam and thousands of others, can be obtained in Barbourville at the Herndon Drug Co's. Drug Store.

Voters in District

To my Friends:

The Republican party, through its suffrage that participated in Primary on Saturday last past, decreed that Prof. B. C. Lewis should be the Republican Senatorial nominee from this District.

I submit to the plurality vote without a quiver or an ill-will against my party, people, or individual, and respectfully ask that every friend of mine who honored me with his vote and influence should get enthusiastically behind the candidacy of Mr. Lewis and help to give him the largest vote any candidate for the Senate ever received from the 17th. District, and show the Republican party that Knox County very greatly appreciates this signal honor.

I am at the service of my friends to try to reciprocate in a measure at least for their loyalty to me.

Sincerely yours,
W. C. Black.

NOTICE

You are hereby notified that we have sold our stock of general merchandise to E. W. Roach. We wish to thank the public for their liberal amount of patronage shown us and assure you Mr. Roach will appreciate any business you may give him.

All persons indebted to Perkins & Co. are hereby notified to come in and settle at once.

Yours truly,
Perkins & Co.
By S. M. Perkins.

I have bought the stock of goods from Perkins & Co. on North Main street, at the M. E. Faulkner stand. I want to see all of their old customers, and many new ones. I shall endeavor to keep almost anything the people need, and will sell as cheap as you can find goods of same quality any where else in town.

Yours for business
E. W. Roach.

New Automobile Distributor

(Hobart Daily Republican)
R. D. Bowersock, the popular automobile distributor, who is a partner with A. B. Wey in that business, will doubtless sever his connection with the latter because of the addition of a member to the firm. Now it is not to be understood that these distributors are having a disagreement for such is not the case, but the new partner has been added by Mr. Bowersock, Nolens Volens, and his interests are to be considered. The addition to the firm arrived in Hobart last night at 11:30 and for the time being will remain at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bowersock. First and Hill—weight nine pounds, sex Male.

Jolly Crowd of Picnicers

Warren, Ky. Aug. 9. Special—The Cumberland had a special car attached to their train into Warren last Friday with about forty Barbourville young folks on a day's outing in the camp of the Carter Coal Co. A trip to the mines was made by the entire party and dinner was served on the ground in regular picnic fashion. They were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Snead at their bungalow and after several hours in camp returned to Barbourville on train No. 4.

The party was chaperoned by Mrs. F. D. Sampson and Mrs. J. R. Tuggle and was given for Misses Mary and Ada Steele, of Junction City, Misses Helen and Drucilla Lytle, of Manchester, Miss Lucille Rawlins, of Danville, and Miss Ruth Hemphill, of Sapulpa, Okla., and was composed of the following young ladies and gentlemen:

Misses Helen and Drucilla Lytle, Mary and Ada Steele, Lucille Rawlins, Ruth Hemphill, Gladys Steele, Modell Russell, Ruby Vanderen, Katherine Lock, Beatrice Croley, Nell Jones, Ruth Decker, Stuart Miller, Emeline Sampson, Florence Putman, Paul Sampson, Martha Albright, Jewel Tye, and Mesdames Sampson and Tuggle.

Messrs. Alex Tinsley, B. Dodson, Walter Jarvis, Herbert Jones, Claude Cole, Ben Herndon, Fred Hemphill, Clyde Stanfill, Clarence Hinkle, James Golden, Earl Stanfill, Robert Faulkner, Geo. Herron, Chas. Mills, John Stanfill, Allan Tuggle, Geo. Brownlee and Armondo Rodriguez.

Artemus

T. J. Payne our popular Deputy Sheriff, spent Friday in Barbourville.

A. J. McCoy, who is teaching school at Trosper, was an Artemus visitor Saturday.

Miss Effie B. Jones, of Middlesboro was the week-end guest of Miss Grace Neal.

T. H. Hayden and W. B. Starke spent Saturday in Pineville and Barbourville.

J. M. Joyner, the Corbin oil man, was calling on his Artemus trade Friday.

Miss Nora Lee Rice, who has been quite sick, is now out again.

A. B. Fortney, of Bennettsville, spent several days last week with his brother, Chas. Fortney, at this place.

C. F. Raney and wife, of Trosper, spent Sunday in Artemus.

Dr. A. L. Parker and W. F. Parker were Sunday visitors to Artemus.

Rev. L. N. Bowling filled his appointment at the Christian Church Saturday and Sunday.

I. T. Helton, our energetic Postmaster, was a Barbourville visitor Tuesday afternoon.

Spencer Marsee and wife arrived Tuesday night for a visit with Mr. Marsee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Marsee.

Mrs. J. A. McBrayer, of Pineville, visited her daughter, Mrs. John C. McNeil, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Jess White, of Williamsburg, called on our merchants Tuesday.

We are pleased to learn of the promotion of our good friend, Mr. C. E. Bullard, to the Superintendency of the Carter Coal Co's Anchor plant.

G. W. Hengst, of Pineville, passed through Artemus Tuesday enroute to the operations of the Asher-Hengst Lumber Company on Harps Creek.

John R. Lytle, who is connected with the Asher-Hengst Lumber Co., spent Sunday with his many friends in Artemus.

L. A. Farrand, of Lebanon, who sells saccharine products throughout this section, called on the Artemus merchants Tuesday.

Several boys came up from Barbourville Tuesday to play Manager Helton's bunch of Terrors, but on account of rain, etc., the game was called off.

Louis Webb, W. R. Marsee, W. W. Lawson, T. J. Payne, and several others whose names ye scribe did not learn were in Barbourville on business Monday.

A Barbourville Merchant says he can't afford to advertise. My dear sir, you can't afford to leave it off. Candidly, we don't know the names of four merchants in Barbourville. If they advertised that would be different.

We are often asked: "Did you get an Advocate this week? I would like to look it over." Kind friend, subscribe for the Advocate and be sure you get a copy every week. Artemus will have a column or so in it every week and the comings and goings of your friends will be recorded therein.

The Artemus Club has been unable to play the last two Saturdays—no game could be arranged for on July 31st and the 7th being election day, it was useless to try and persuade anyone to lay down their ballots for the great American game. We will come back next Saturday and make up for what has been lost.

Manager Helton and his terrible Terrors crossed bats with the Bennettsville Bunglers at Artemus Monday and when the game was over, the Terrors found themselves defeated by a score of 13 to 11. Manager Helton says his terrors will come back stronger than ever, and the Bunglers will not find the Terrors quite so easy in the next game.

The primary passed off very quietly here and after one p. m. the enthusiasm in the election of a school trustee for the Artemus district became so great that the big race was forgotten. Wiley Jackson, who was a candidate, withdrew Thursday, leaving the field to W. W. Lawson, Louis Webb and W. B. Kinder.

About noon Saturday, Mr. Kinder withdrew, leaving the race with Webb and Lawson. Both sides put up a vigorous fight and when the last vote was registered, it was found that Mr. Lawson had won by a vote of 97 to 87. While the Advocate's correspondent favored Mr. Webb in the race, the fight was between two clean, clever gentlemen, both of whom have the interests of the district at heart, and the good people of the district can rest assured that their school will be efficiently conducted under Mr. Lawson's trusteeship. The same could have been said about Mr. Webb, had he been elected. The ladies of the town showed their interest in the school's welfare and large numbers of them came out to register their vote.

Rev. J. A. Lowry has been conducting a series of meetings at the Baptist Church here and has enjoyed a good attendance at all the meetings. Rev. Lowry is a forceful speaker and has been driving some truths home. We are always glad to have a man of Rev. Lowry's standing with us and we trust that his teachings will be heeded by the people of our town. It will make better men and women of us.

Now, that the Primary is over we trust that the various candidates will heal their differences and support their tickets as strongly as they put forth efforts to win the nominations. And, while we are on the subject, we are not unmindful of the hard fight in our behalf that G. B. Detherage put forth to secure good roads through our section and we wish to go on record now as strongly supporting the gentleman for our next County Judge, and we say just here that we will take advantage of every opportunity to boost our selection.

Warren

Sheriff S. L. Lewis was in Warren Saturday.

George Tinsley came over from Barbourville Friday and spent the night in our camp.

Misses Jessie Mayhew and Ethel Campbell opened school here Monday with a large enrollment.

Vader McDonald, of base ball fame and politics on the side, spent several days in Warren last week in the interest of his brother's race for Circuit Court Clerk.

W. F. Parker was in Warren Friday and Saturday working on the boys to put one in for him in the election Saturday but this is the home town of Uncle Charley Bays, who swept Little Brush Creek and there was not much doing for Mr. Parker.

Eb Coodwin, who formally played ball on the Warren team but now playing with the Roaring Fork Va. team, came in Camp last Friday and persuaded two of the Warren Team's best men to go to Roaring Fork for a close game they were going to have last Saturday. Bill and Charlie Dixon went up to help them out. We don't see why Eb in his search for good players overlooked the Terrible Terrors, at Artemus.

A Quiet Election

The election here Saturday passed off quietly and the smallest vote ever polled was the result. The race between Mr. Donald and Jones for Clerk was close and Jones came out ahead ten votes, but McDonald won at Wheeler's by a handsome majority and got a good majority on Little Brush Creek.

Dr. Snead Elected

What was thought to be a close race between Dr. W. W. Snead and G. O. Brannam for school trustee, turned out to be a farce as the Doctor had a walk away and won out 109 to Brannam's 9 votes. Brannam was depending on his plea of beginning school in July, to elect him and Dr. Snead was for starting it in September, but as a good many of the patrons want an earlier beginning, the school opened Monday and is to begin the first Monday in August hereafter. It seems like that as warm as it gets here, that the school should not open until it gets cooler as it is bad from a human standpoint to have a lot of children hauled up in a school room when the thermometer is ready to blow up from the excessive heat.

100 Coal Loaders Wanted

We have recently opened up new territory and built new camps. Have also added considerable equipment. As this mine runs full time, it is a desirable place to locate.
